WHY DEPOSIT?

- Increased professional visibility
- Greater impact of scholarship
- Discoverable via Google
- Long term preservation of work
- Depositing your work in an Institutional Repository like Research@THEA makes your research available in Open Access (OA) format
- Enhance Faculty / Department / Research Institute and AIT’s reputation
- Enabling and encouraging interdisciplinary approaches to research
- Building research and industry connections

Research@THEA is an Open Access Institutional Repository committed to collecting and providing global access to the research and scholarly output of Athlone Institute of Technology.

- Publications hosted on Research@THEA, will automatically be accessible through search engines such as Google and Google Scholar.
- The Library supports ‘Green’ open access publishing. Depositing the final manuscript version of your work in Research@THEA can fulfil funders requirements.
- The final manuscript version, is the final draft, after peer review (including any peer review changes) but without the publishers formatting, typesetting or logos.
- The Library will check and adhere to publisher’s policies relating to ‘self-archiving’ and apply embargo’s as required.
- The Library will work with you and manage the majority of the process.
